DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 32-40 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 32, line 2, what is resin, the base or pad? Line 5 “a” should be inserted after “via”. Line 10 is confusing. What is to be placed on the suction plate? What does “gate-shaped” mean? Does the “cutting part” have the tooth width, wedge angle and clearance angle? Line 29, What does a “numerical control apparatus totally control” mean? Is this a separate apparatus than the machine? Should it be “controlling”? Cl. 33, what are “chips”? This lacks antecedent basis. The first three lines are confusing. Cl. 34, is the milling or drill unit the same as the fixed tool of claim 32? Cl. 35 lacks antecedent basis for the milling cutter. It should depend from claim 34. The wedge angle, tooth width, and clearance angle are out of the claimed ranges of claim 32. Cl. 36, “center axes” lacks antecedent basis. Claims 35 and 37 are unclear since claim 32 recites a fixed tool and these claims recite a milling or drill tool. Perhaps these claims should recite that the fixed tool is a milling tool, or drilling tool. But then the dimensions and specifications of the fixed tool do not meet the drill specifications. Cl. 40 said rotative tool lacks antecedent basis.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 32-40 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

4. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to E. Morgan whose telephone number is (703) 308-1743.
